LIBERTY hospitality and exchange

We are going to start the temporary reuse project of 5 liberty buildings, currently abandoned and owned by the company SOGEMI as an inn, co-working spaces, bank of time for neighborhood self-organized services, apart-hotel for relatives of hospital patients, student house, Youth Hostel.

PROGETTO

In September 2012 during the Milan Workshop new spaces for temporary re-use, with students of the Polytechnic of Milan and some associations and artists we have develop the project Liberty Hospitality and exchange.

Where do we stand now? Between October and December 2012 we consulted the Departments of Planning, Culture, Sports, State Property and decentralization of the Municipality of Milan and meet and talked with the City Council in order to develop the type of services for this empty buildings.

Between January and April 2013 we would like to launch a Call for Proposal for the management of the project and then immediately move on to start the self-construction and infrastructures of the spaces with residents, associations, artists and experts. If it works, Liberty hospitality and exchange could be opened to the public in autumn 2013.

Liberty hospitality and exchange, is included in the design process TEMPORIUSO X MILAN and part of the "Re-activation of spaces of interest in the city with temporary reuse projects" supported by the City of Milan and the Milan Polytechnic University, Department of Architecture and Urban Studies.
